Office Action Summary

Art Unit: 1711

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-8, drawn to a composition, classified in class 524, subclass 445.
- II. Claims 9-10, drawn to a part, classified in class 122, subclass 321.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I and II are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful as a gasket and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1711

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Attorney John Griecchi on May 8, 2002 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of I, claims 1-8. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 9 and 10 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yau, S. (USP 5080942).

Yau disclose compositions for tubular articles. The compositions comprise (a) an oil-extended ethylene propylene diene monomer rubber, (b) an elastomer, (c) an extender, (d) a processing oil, (e) silica (i.e. white carbon) and (f) plasticizer (col. 2, lines 24-44). Polybutene is used as a plasticizer (col. 4, lines 1-6). Also suitable for use in the composition are organic silane and clay (col.7, lines 17 and 22). Preparation of a sample from a composition is shown in col. 4, line 60 to col. 5, line 17.

The composition can be molded into tubes (col. 5, lines 9-10).

Claims 1-8 therefore are not novel.

Art Unit: 1711

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yau, S. (USP 5080942).

Disclosure of Yau is presented earlier.

It would have been obvious to follow teachings of patentee and arrive at claimed invention.
